CHAPTER – II
CONFIDENTIALITY OF PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

4. Compliance Officer

The Company has appointed the Company Secretary as Compliance Officer who shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board. In the absence of the designated/appointed Compliance Officer, the Chairman shall be authorised to appoint a person to act as the Compliance Officer in the period of absence.

4.1 Duties of Compliance Officer:

1. He shall assist all the Designated Persons, Promoters and Insiders in addressing any clarifications regarding SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulation, 2015 and the Company's Code of Conduct.
2. If the Company /Compliance Officer observes that there has been a violation of the Regulations, SEBI must be informed by the Compliance Officer.

The Board of Directors of the Company/ Chairman/ Managing Director may assign such other duties to Compliance Officer under this code as may be deemed fit and proper from time to time.

5. Preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled within the Company on a "need to know" basis, i.e., Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the company who need the information for legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

6. Prohibition on Dealing, Communicating or Counseling on Matters Relating to Insider Trading:

6.1 No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to a Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.2 No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to securities of the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

6.3 Unpublished Price Sensitive Information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:–

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company;

- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

6.4 However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

6.5 Trading by Insiders including Promoters, non-individual Insiders when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be governed by Regulation 4 of the “Regulations”.

CHAPTER – III
TRADING RESTRICTIONS

7. TRADING PLAN

7.1 An Insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

7.2 Trading Plan shall:

(i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;

(iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;

(iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

7.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

7.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. Trading Window:

- (a) The period prior to declaration of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is particularly sensitive for transaction in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

The Designated Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities when the Trading Window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as Prohibited Period. The intimation of closure shall be made through email and/ or through the website of the Company. The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

- (b) Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window for Dealing in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes-
- a. financial results
 - b. dividends
 - c. change in capital structure
 - d. mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions
 - e. changes in the board of directors or key managerial personnel
 - f. material events in accordance with the Listing Agreement.
- (c) In respect of declaration of financial results, the Trading Window shall be closed at least 7 days prior to the date of Board Meeting wherein the quarterly or annual standalone / consolidated financial results, as the case may be, are declared.

The closure of Trading Window for purposes other than declaration of financial results and for which a specific notice/intimation is required to be given to stock exchange shall commence from the date on which intimation of the date of Board meeting for consideration of any such Price Sensitive Information is given to Stock Exchange.

However, if the circumstances so warrant, the time for closing the Trading Window may be increased or decreased by the Compliance Officer with the approval of Chairman /Managing Director.

- (d) The timing for re-opening of the Trading Window for the information referred in (b) shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- (e) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only during the valid Trading Window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the prohibited periods or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

- (f) The Trading Window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

9. Pre-clearance of trades:

- 9.1 All Designated Persons who intend to deal in the securities of the Company in excess of Rs.10 lacs whether in one or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter shall require prior clearance from the Compliance Officer.

No Designated Person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information even if the Trading Window is not closed.

- 9.2 The Clearance shall be obtained as per the procedure prescribed below:

9.2.1 An application is to be made to the Compliance Officer as per the enclosed format (Form-I) indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Persons intends to deal in, the details of securities held in physical form as to folio no., the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this regard.

9.2.2 Each Designated person shall execute in favour of the Company an undertaking in the enclosed pro-forma (Form-I) for getting the trades cleared.

The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Designated Person with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application.

The Compliance Officer shall grant approval within 2 working days from the date of acknowledgement.

The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements. In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the basis of possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for any withholding of consent.

If so requested by the Compliance Officer, Designated Persons must ensure that his stockbroker is authorised to disclose to the Company all matters relevant to his share dealings.

- 9.3 The Designated Persons shall execute their transactions within one week after the pre-clearance failing which they have to pre-clear the transactions again.

10. Minimum Period for holding of Securities

- a. All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- b. The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these Regulations.
- c. If a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.
